

3 WAYS

to manage your collections

No matter what your cataloguing and acquisition management needs, your library's collection will be under your complete control with these 3 solutions:

- ONE SabiCat
- TWO Electronic Resource Management
- THREE Dewey Decimal Classification® system

Manage your library's electronic collections from end to end:

- acquisitions,
- subscription management,
- automatic management of holdings and records in the library catalogue, and
- access to electronic resources.

SabiCat

Experience the power of cooperative cataloguing. Benefit from the continuous work and expertise of OCLC and member libraries worldwide to collectively create, enhance and share quality records in WorldCat. Unlimited access to WorldCat allows you to quickly find the records you need, so you can copy catalogues from one source instead of doing original cataloguing.

YOU:

- Will improve your cataloguing efficiencies while reducing costs.
- Are able to subscribe to the WorldCat knowledge base with its incorporated link resolver software, A-Z lists and integration with the WorldShare® Collection Manager for management of your electronic resources.
- Only need an internet browser.
- Can access and edit WorldCat through your integrated library management system.
- Will see an increase in the visibility of your holdings worldwide, which will lead to more efficient use of your collections.
- Will experience increased resource sharing as all holdings and records added by Southern African libraries are added to the SACat, a union catalogue for the region.

3 WAYS to manage your collections

Electronic Resource Management

With a SabiCat subscription, which includes the WorldCat knowledge base and the WorldShare® Collection Manager at no extra charge, libraries can automate collection management and access processes for electronic resources. By adding the WorldShare® License Manager service, you can easily manage the subscription process and the entire electronic resource management process.

YOU:

- Get most of the services required for managing electronic collections with your SabiCat subscription at no extra charge.
- Get automated maintenance of holdings on WorldCat, and your library catalogue is enabled for electronic resources.
- Get improved e-resource workflow efficiencies and increased collection visibility.
- Get easily discoverable content and a lower cost of maintaining electronic collections.

Dewey Decimal Classification® System

The world's most widely used classification system can organise every item in your library's unique collection. Dewey® products and services are available online.

YOU:

- Get online access to the classification system.
- Are able to streamline your workflow. The current edition includes structural changes to improve usability and simplify classification tasks.
- Can improve your service. Careful consideration is put into each revision and addition to help you better classify works for easier access.
- Can subscribe to WebDewey for automatic updates to the classification system.
